

Presented by

Part of AHURI's National Cities Research Program

A NEW AGENDA FOR STRATEGIC PLANNING IN CAPITAL CITIES

Customs House, Circular Quay

FEATURING

The Hon. Tanya Plibersek MP

Minister for Housing
Minister for the Status of Women

AFTERNOON FORUM 4.30–7PM
WEDNESDAY 21 APRIL 2010

Implementing and evaluating the new COAG Criteria for Capital City Planning

Wednesday 21 April 2010

Barnet Long Room
Level 1 City Library
Customs House
Circular Quay, Sydney

4.15 PM FOR A 4.30 PM START

TRAIN: CIRCULAR QUAY STATION
FERRY: CIRCULAR QUAY
BUSES: ALFRED STREET

Monica Barone

—City of Sydney CEO

Welcome and introduction

The Hon. Tanya Plibersek, MP

—Minister for Housing, Minister for the Status of Women

‘The national criteria for strategic planning in capital cities’

Patrick Fensham

—SGS Economics and Planning

‘How do Sydney and Melbourne currently rate against the national criteria?’

Roderick Simpson

—s+w Architecture and Urban Design

‘New directions for strategic planning in Sydney and Melbourne to satisfy the national criteria’

Dr Marcus Spiller

—SGS Economics and Planning

‘Evaluating strategies for economic and productivity performance’

Bruce Taper

—Kinesis

‘Evaluating strategies for sustainability’

Panel Discussion

‘Rolling out and applying the criteria’

—Chaired by Ian Winter, AHURI

Panel to include:

—Mary Ann O’Loughlin, COAG Reform Council

—Professor Bill Randolph, City Futures, UNSW

—Professor Lyndsay Neilson, Neilson Associates &

Centre for Developing Cities, University of Canberra

—Representative from State Government (TBC)

*Attendance is free but numbers are strictly limited.
RSVP 19 April, Damien Coup AHURI 03 9660 2303
or email damien.coup@ahuri.edu.au

